

JOB OPEN

Postdoctoral Scholar

The Ohio State University

Opportunity for scholar interested in Social Determinants of Health and Substance Use Research with Latinx and Black Youth

ABOUT OUR STUDIES

The SUN-E (Substance Use & Neurocognition Equity) Lab is implementing NIAAA and NIDA funded research studies using quantitative and qualitative research methods to investigate the social determinants of health among Latinx and Black youth.

POSITION

- Opportunity to boost publication record, leading first authored papers.
- Work on secondary data analysis with the ABCD Study.
- Mixed-method research in field of adolescent health.

Starting Winter/Spring/Summer 2024
Possibility of remote position.

Link to job posting here!

If you are interested in this position or have any questions, please connect with me.

marybel.gonzalez@osumc.edu

X @marybel08

